TO AID IN EFFORT FOR ARMOR PLANT

Directors of Board of Trade Indorse Project to Have Factory Established Here.

RECENT DEATHS OF TWO DEPLORED IN RESOLUTIONS

Justice Thomas H. Anderson and A. A. Birney Praised for Devotion to Capital.

Indorsement of the project to have the government armor plant established in the District of Columbia was given by the board of directors of the Board of Trade at a meeting yesterday afternoon. A committee, composed of William D. West, chairman, Oscar W. White and D. S. Porter, was appointed to co-operate with the Chamber of Commerce and other organizations in accomplishing this end.

Mr. West introduced the resolutions. They were seconded by Odell S. Smith, who declared:

"This is something we should back up with all our hearts. We should take definite action, one way or another, and if we indorse the proposition, we should do all we can to bring it here."

Resolutions of regret and sympathy for the death of Justice Thomas H. Anderson of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia Saturday night, at Denver, Col., and for the death, September 4, of A. A. Birney were adopted by unanimous rising votes.

President E. C. Brandenburg named John Joy Edson, Theodore W. Noyes and E. H. Drayton as a committee to draw up the resolutions on the death of Justice Anderson, while E. F. Collahey, St. Francis Xavier, H. Clifford, and others were named to draw up the resolutions on the death of Mr. Birney.

Loss of Justice Anderson Felt.
Saying that the death of Justice Anderson has brought to this community "an uncommon loss," the resolutions set forth, in part:

"A resident of Washington since 1893, and for the last fifteen years an honored member of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, he has steadily grown in public estimation, and come to be justly regarded as one of the foremost citizens of the nation's capital."

"He was the ideal judge. Learned in the law, untiring in industry, patient, open-minded, a model of fairness and integrity, he was a force for good in the highest sense of justice, he discharged the onerous duties of his office so wisely and usefully, and with such a measure of public confidence and approval. He was deservedly held in the greatest esteem and affectionate regard by his fellow citizens."

Praise for Mr. Birney.
The resolutions concerning Mr. Birney's death set forth, in part:

"Mr. Birney was interested in, and an ardent advocate of, all those things and movements which contributed to the welfare and advancement of the interests of the District of Columbia and its people."

"Continuously for the past forty years he has been a steadfast and able worker in his profession, in which he attained such distinction, and in the many fields of public and charitable endeavor or which exist here."

"In the Washington Board of Trade he was one of the most earnest, active and efficient members, having served on many of its committees, including the committee which successfully advocated the movement for the codification of the laws of the District of Columbia, resulting in the enactment into law of the present District code. At the time of his death he was a director and was chairman of the committee on law."

Would Expedite Business.
A change in the manner of conducting the business of the Board of Trade, so as to expedite it, probably will be made. A committee was appointed to consider ways of expediting action on the annual report, and it was directed to consider such changes in the by-laws as to make that possible.

Notice that in the future all committee meetings will be posted four days in advance and that lay members may get a hearing before any committee, as decided by the executive committee, is to be incorporated in the first announcement of the regular meeting of the Board of Trade, on motion of C. J. Gockeler.

Louis A. Dent was chosen as a member of the board of directors to succeed the late Mr. Birney. J. Harry Cunningham spoke briefly, urging the election of Mr. Dent, who he said had been one of the most active members of the organization.

The directors referred to the executive committee the matter of entertaining the Arkansas citizens who are to arrive in Washington October 29 on the commercial train which has been sent out by trade organizations of the state. C. J. Smith invited the board of directors to attend an open meeting of the Society of Financial Officers of Railways at the Raleigh Hotel October 20.

A motion commending the Board of Trade Club for its work and R. H. Droop for the assistance which he has given the club was adopted.

These persons were elected to membership: Robert L. Miller, Robert J. Corby, R. K. Ferguson, Charles H. Ruoff, Robert J. Wynne and Joseph T. Baines.

IN FAVOR OF ARMOR PLANT FOR NATIONAL CAPITAL
Conduit Road Citizens' Association Also Indorses the Great Falls Power Project.

Unanimous indorsement of the effort to bring the government armor plant to Washington and support of the Great Falls power plant project were the first items of business in the program of the Conduit Road Citizens' Association at its organization meeting last night in St. David's Parish Hall, Albany Park, D. C. Following the election of officers, Samuel F. Dorsett introduced the resolutions. The Great Falls power plant item was referred to a special committee for action.

The association was organized with forty-two charter members. The constitution was adopted, officers were elected and preliminary dues paid. The officers are: President, C. L. Baker; first vice, Robert L. Miller; second vice, Robert J. Corby; secretary, J. F. Lightfoot; treasurer, J. V. R. Parlin, and treasurer, J. V. R. Parlin.

association is bounded by the territories of the Northwest Suburban, Georgetown, Cathedral Heights and Columbia Heights Citizens' associations, the District line and the Potomac river. Geographically, it is to be one of the largest citizens' associations in the District, and will include Foxhall Heights, Albany Park and Potomac Heights.

The new association will meet the first Monday every month in the parish hall, on Conduit road. It is an outgrowth of the old West Washington Citizens' Association. The constitutional committee was composed of C. R. Morris, J. J. Lightfoot and Gersham Bradford.

FOR ARMOR PLANT HERE; WOULD BAR FIREARMS

North Washington Citizens Elect Brig. Gen. C. H. Ourand, D. C. N. G., Retired, as President.

Indorsement of the project to bring the government armor plant to the District of Columbia; indorsement of the proposition to have better laws governing the sale of deadly weapons in the District, and election of officers formed the larger part of the business of a meeting of the North Washington Citizens' Association last night, in Gage School building.

Resolutions indorsing the armor plant project were introduced by Washington Topham. They set forth: "We heartily indorse the project to bring the government armor plant to the District of Columbia. It meets our hearty approval and indorsement. Washington is the most suitable and most appropriate place for the plant."

Mr. Topham also brought before the association the proposition of having better laws governing the sale of deadly weapons.

"The sale of firearms should be more restricted," he said. "We should have laws whereby only responsible persons could get firearms, instead of their being available for any loafer on the streets who chances to see them."

"Within the last two or three months we have had several shooting affairs. They seem to become contagious. The present laws are of no use whatever."

These officers were elected: President, Brig. Gen. Charles H. Ourand, D. C. N. G., retired; first vice president, Dr. A. D. Coby; second vice president, W. Pritchett, and treasurer, Frank Hagner. Carl F. Speh and M. V. Collins were elected to membership.

The District Commissioners are to be requested to put a light in the yard of the Gage School and have the gates remain open, so this is a short thoroughfare for many residents of the section between several given points.

Rev. E. G. Mott was invited to deliver an address, at a later meeting of the organization, on the relation between the form of government in the District of Columbia and other forms which have been and are being tried.

Will Take Part in Celebration.
Byron Newton, assistant secretary of the treasury, and Dr. John W. Kerr, assistant surgeon general of the navy, will take part in the celebration there in connection with the sanitary improvement of the country.

THREE THOUSAND CASES OF CHOLERA IN JAPAN

Thirty Dead in Tokio and Epidemic Hits Summer Resort

Correspondence of the Associated Press. TOKIO, September 12.—The most important development in the cholera situation in Japan is its appearance in the capital of Tokio, where about eighty cases have appeared, thirty of them fatal. The disease is also on the increase in the city of Osaka, and has broken out in other parts of Japan, including the summer resort at Karuizawa.

Urgent precautions have been taken everywhere, including the navy and army stations and barracks. Extensive disinfection is being carried out in Tokio. The Tokio city electric railway has disinfected all its cars.

The total number of cases throughout Japan since the beginning is believed to be about 3,000, though the official figures are no longer announced by the home department. This is attributed to a desire not to unnecessarily alarm the population.

It was also stated in the Japanese press that the officials did not wish the impression to go abroad that Japan was affected with a serious cholera epidemic. As a matter of fact the officials believe they had the situation well in hand.

The authorities have distributed notices to all residents urging the following of strict precautions, including the boiling of all water, milk and vegetables, and the total abstinence from all fish and uncooked fruit.

Changes in Recruiting Service.
A number of changes have been ordered in the general recruiting service of the army. Officers detailed to that service are: At Columbus barracks, Ohio, Capt. William A. McCain, cavalry, and Elrat Lieut. William C. Fouts, Coast Artillery Corps; David H. Cowles, Infantry; George A. Sanford, Infantry; John F. Laidis, Infantry, and Harry W. Stark, Coast Artillery Corps; at Jefferson barracks, Md., First Lieut. Charles M. Everett, Infantry; Claude M. Thiele, Coast Artillery Corps; Burton J. Read, cavalry; Aiden G. Strong, Coast Artillery Corps; and Edward J. Moran, 24th Infantry; at Fort Slocum, N. Y., First Lieut. John A. Conditine, cavalry, and at Fort McDowell, Cal., First Lieut. Otis K. Sadtler, Infantry.

Officers relieved from recruiting duty are: At Columbus barracks, Ohio, Capt. Edgar H. Thompson, Coast Artillery Corps; Gerit Van S. Quackenbush, 17th Infantry, and Ira A. Smith, Infantry; at Jefferson barracks, Mo., Capt. George W. England, Infantry, and John M. Craig, 22d Infantry.

WATCH FOR HURRICANES.
Weather Bureau Officials Would Warn Shipping.

With the hurricane season at its height, weather bureau officials are on the alert for indications of a storm in the West Indies so interests along the gulf coast may be warned in time.

More hurricanes form in the neighborhood of the West Indies in October than during any other month in the year," according to bureau officials. "Forty-six have been traced from 1878 to 1910, inclusive. They move in a west-northwesterly direction about 250 miles a day, and unless they head into the Gulf of Mexico, generally recurve near the coast between Jupiter, Fla., and Hatteras, N. C., thence pass northward with increasing velocity of translation."

Seek Dyestuffs Census.
Demand for the publication of the census on dyestuffs taken by the Department of Commerce was made yesterday by the American Association of Woolen and Worsted Manufacturers.

The demand was made in a telegram to Secretary Redfield. Secretary Redfield replied that the census has not been suppressed as the demand implied. He said that the proofs had been temporarily withheld from publication pending study whether changes in form are desirable to afford the proper privacy to individual transactions.
